

Announcement: The OLP and LSC Membership Benefits

September, 15 2009:

To meet the ever increasing and specific needs of e-discovery professionals, a new, non-profit organization, The Organization of Legal Professionals (www.theolp.org) has formed. Members of the OLP will receive many benefits, one of which will now include a permanent discount on all products on LitigationSupportCareers.com. All members of the OLP shall receive discount on employer and job seeker products on LSC ranging from 25-50% off posted prices. Members of the OLP may go to the membership benefit section of the OLP site to learn more about taking advantage of this valuable offer from LSC.

About the OLP:

Concentrating on certification through collaboration and education, this exciting organization is dedicated to developing certification exams in all aspects of e-discovery. The voluntary exam and training will cover the lawyer/paralegal, technician, consultant and vendor job classifications.

A blue ribbon Board of Governors and Advisory Council has been formed. Just a few of the legal icons leading the organization include: Browning Marean, DLA Piper; Patrick Oot, Verizon; Tom O'Connor, Legal Electronic Documents, Jeff Fowler, O'Melveny & Myers; Linda Klein, Past Pres. State Bar of Georgia; Anne Kershaw; Shannon Kirk, Ropes & Gray; Eddie Sheehy, CEO, Nuix; Ron Friedmann, VP, Integreon; Nigel Murray, Trilantic; Christy Stouffer, Patton Boggs; and Arnold Blair, WilmerHale among others.

The membership drive has been launched. A special membership discount rate at $75.00 per individual ends on October 1st whereupon the membership fees will be $99.00. Get on board with this innovative purposeful organization. Make a difference that matters. For more information: info@theolp.org.
